Welcome

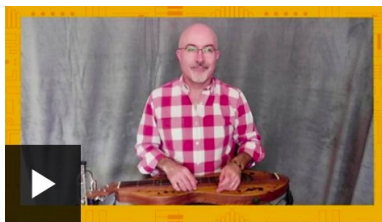

SIPS Music and Arts would like to share some musical activities and links for you to share with parents and your teaching staff during Lockdown 3!

Importance of Music in difficult times

We believe music can change lives, enabling lifelong participation and enjoyment, impacting on well-being and good mental health. In these difficult times music can play a major role in keeping spirits high. 'Notes' will give you simple ideas to engage pupils in and outside of the school setting.

These 2 short videos are a good way to learn your basic rhythms. Hopefully, pupils will learn how long each notes lasts, what their names are and how to draw them. Get pupils to try writing different combinations of semibreves, minims, crotchets and quavers and clapping out their own written rhythm

Sing Up Day is on 30 June 2021

The brand new Sing Up Day anthem (We are) Unstoppable is out now. Join singers around the world in celebrating the power of song.

We can't wait to sing with you again this summer. Get the date in your school calendar, share it with teacher friends, and look out for more Sing Up Day news.

Free Charanga Training

Monday 15th March from 4pm – 5pm.

Our partnership with Charanga provides Sandwell schools with access to cloud based music resources that bring together great music and the latest educational technology

If you currently use Charanga or are thinking of purchasing it for you school. Why not attend this informative training session?

This session will be ideal for those who are new to, or want to discover more, about Musical School. As well as providing a high level overview of the Scheme: Scope and Sequence with the recent optional replacement and additional activities, we'll explore Yumu, the student learning space, and the lesson building and sharing functionalities.
